Description

Adrián Juárez was born in La Plata (Buenos Aires, Argentina).

He studied piano for seven years and then he got close to other musical instruments in an intuitive way.

Besides his role as an artist he's in charge of Frígida Records netlabel where he edits music by artists from all over the world.

In his large output he comes near a long genre list, but on the two "Caleta"-Volumes he celebrates 4 calm, tranquil ambient tunes.

Slightly vibrating soundscapes and soft drones guide the listener through over 90 minutes of deeply emotional music.

So close your eyes and put your headphones on.
